MAA4212 Spring 2020 Syllabus

Advanced Calculus II Section 16E9 Spring 2020

Instructor

Scott McCullough

Course Content and Objectives

A continuation of MAA4211. A rigorous treatment of the foundations of Calculus. Topics for this second semester include sequences and series of functions, differentiation, the Riemann integral, the calculus of several variables including the inverse and implicit function theorems. In addition to mastery of the course content, course objectives include reading, writing, and discovering proofs and constructing proofs and counterexamples in analysis.

Suggested Problems

Selected problems from the text will be assigned on a daily basis.

Homework and Quizzes

12 or 13 homework problems will be assigned, collected, and graded. Late homework will not be accepted. Each homework is worth 10 points. The best 10 homeworks count towards a homework score.

Exams

There will be three exams each worth 100 points based upon the Suggested Problems and Homework. The final exam will serve as a make-up

Exam 1. Friday 7 February. Exam 2. Wednesday 18 March. Exam 3. Monday 20 April. Make-up exam. Thursday 30 April, 3-4 pm.

Grading

A course total will be computed by adding the exam and homework scores. Grades will then be assigned according to a straight scale:

90 - 100 A; 87 - 89 A-; 84-86 B+; 80-83 B; 77-79 B-; etc.

See the current UF policy on assigning grade points.

Attendance

Attendance is recommended.

Additional Information:

Grades. Grading will be in accord with the UF policy stated at https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx. Also see the current UF policy on assigning grade points.

Academic Honesty. The course will be conducted in accordance with the University honor code and academic honesty policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Code Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code." On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have niether given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have questions or concerns please consult with the instructor.

Accommodation for students with disabilities. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Online Evaluations. "Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/."
